Nordstrom Announces Exclusive U.S. Sponsorship of Michael Buble's 2010 'Crazy Love Tour'

December 8, 2009

SEATTLE, Dec 08, 2009 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX/ -- Nordstrom, Inc. announced today their exclusive U.S. sponsorship of Michael Buble's 2010 "Crazy Love Tour." The tour is in support of Michael Buble's recently released and critically acclaimed CD, "Crazy Love" which debuted at No. 1 on Billboard's Top 200 Chart. Tickets for the initial dates of the tour are on sale at www.michaelbuble.com.

As the presenting sponsor of the 2010 U.S. "Crazy Love Tour," Nordstrom will provide Buble's concert tour wardrobe including suiting and other fashion apparel. In addition, Nordstrom will offer customers access to unique Michael Buble experiences at Nordstrom stores, online at nordstrom.com and at concert venues beginning Spring 2010. The "Crazy Love" CD is currently available at all Nordstrom stores and online at nordstrom.com

"Michael Buble is an extremely talented artist and we know many of our customers are among his biggest fans," said Nordstrom Full-Line Store President of Merchandising Pete Nordstrom. "We are proud to partner with Michael to sponsor his upcoming tour and other Nordstrom related events."

Since Nordstrom began selling Michael Buble's CDs in 2007, they have been a top seller in the retailer's entertainment category. Nordstrom recently partnered with the Grammy winning artist and songwriter to create a VIP concert experience - one of several unique fashion and travel packages offered to the retailer's top-spending customers for the holiday season. The packages all sold out in record time.
