Nordstrom Named World's Most Admired Companies by Fortune

February 2, 2022

Today, Fortune Magazine released their Most Admired Companies list, and Nordstrom is honored to be recognized for the 13th consecutive year.

This honor is something that we know we can't take for granted and must work to earn every day. We strive to deliver on our heritage of service and to create an environment where employees and customers are welcomed, respected and able to be themselves. Fortune, in partnership with Korn Ferry, surveyed executives, directors and analysts across 52 industries to rate businesses based on their achievements in investment value and quality of management and products, commitments to social responsibility and their ability to attract talent. You can read more about the methodology here.

In addition to being recognized by Fortune, we are proud to have been acknowledged as industry leaders focused on delivering great service and commitments to sustainability and innovation. Most notable recognitions include Forbes Halo 100, Good Housekeeping Sustainable Innovation Award, Elle Magazine's Green Beauty Star Award and the Human Rights Campaign's Corporate Equality Index.

We are thankful to our employees who have continued to bring the Nordstrom experience to life and work every day to deliver on our brand promise to providing great customer service.
